Each of Moore Ruble Yudell's Berlin projects, which include urban design, master planning, housing and commercial and institutional buildings, has marked an important moment in the history of this city. For example, Tegel Harbor proclaimed humane values at the periphery of the West just before the barriers fell. Kirchsteigfeld and Karow Nord brought an improved standard of living to East Germany, welcoming it back into the fold after 60 years of oppression. Tiergarten Dreicke, with its three embassies and CDU HQ, is a major addition to Berlin as the capital of a reunited Germany. Each of these projects has a strong sense of place, developed in response to their unique contexts.
