- Multi-talented globetrotter Malene Birger showcases four houses and flats she has designed in England, Italy, Greece, and Spain
- With an additional chapter that covers her latest renovation project: a townhouse in Felanitx (Mallorca), pictorially staged before the conversion
- Third volume of the bestselling series with more than 10,000 copies sold each
- Text in English, German, French and Spanish

Inspiring new design ideas from multiple award-winning Danish fashion and interior designer Malene Birger. In this third volume of her successful interior design series, Birger showcases four houses and apartments she has recently furnished in England, Italy, Greece and Spain. Alluring before-and-after shots trace the path from proverbial white canvas to feel-good oasis. In addition, the versatile globetrotter shows her own artwork and a new line of jewellery that reflects her unique aesthetic visual language. The final chapter of the book is devoted to the beginnings of her latest remodeling project, a townhouse in Felanitx, a town on the Balearic Island of Majorca.

Text in English, German, French and Spanish

With over 25 years of experience within the fashion industry Malene Birger is synonymous with uncompromising style and attention to details. Having led the creation and foundation of two of Denmark's most successful international fashion brands – DAY BIRGER et MIKKELSEN (1997-2002) and BY MALENE BIRGER (2003-2014) – the multiple award-winning designer has since worked on numerous projects across interior, fashion and art. In 2015 she founded the eponymous design consultancy MALENE BIRGER'S WORLD. As a self-proclaimed nomad, for the past 15 years she has lived, renovated and designed properties in Mallorca, London, Italy and currently lives in Mallorca, working on new projects. She has recently launched a small jewellery collection GOLD&ME. She works from her studio on Mallorca and from her second home in Greece. Mallorca and Greece mark a new chapter in her illustrious and creative career.
