- Original multisensory concept with felt inserts inside die-cut board pages.
- Encourages tactile, motor, and cognitive development
- Exclusive illustrations by Agnese Baruzzi
- Two essential early-learning themes

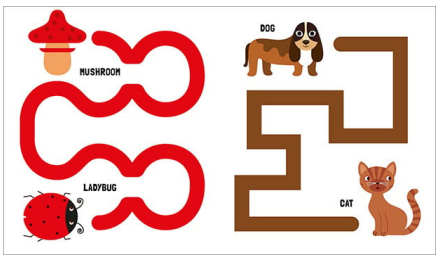

A new series of interactive board books that transforms early learning into a truly multisensory experience. Colourful felt inserts are hidden between the sturdy board pages and revealed through die-cut pathways and shaped openings, inviting little hands to trace soft tactile trails and explore key elements of each illustration. This unique feature supports hand-eye coordination, tactile awareness, fine motor skills, and early cognitive development while turning every page into an engaging discovery. Agnese Baruzzi's vibrant, instantly recognisable illustrations make learning fun and intuitive.

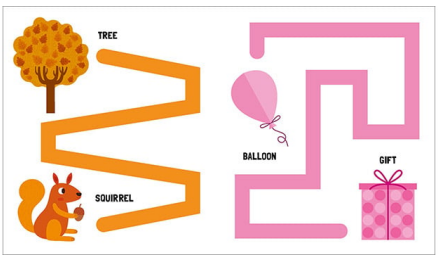

My First Words introduces young children to their first everyday vocabulary through animals, vehicles, and familiar objects. By seeing, touching, and naming each item, children naturally build language skills while enjoying an interactive sensory reading experience.

Ages 0-3 years.

Agnese Baruzzi is a talented illustrator with a background in graphic design. Since 2001, she has created successful books published in various countries, captivating young readers with her vibrant artwork.
