- Encourages Love for Nature: Stimulates curiosity, observation skills, and respect for nature that kids can take into their own backyards for hands-on learning and discovery
- Created by Experts: Cocai Design creative studio and naturalist Danio Miserocchi combine their work from their experience in museums with conservation, biodiversity, botany, and zoology to design a guide specifically for children
- Thematic Structure: This visual encyclopaedia-like catalogue is divided into thematic categories — Insects, Arachnids, and Molluscs
- Captivating Text & Visuals: Short, clear text and detailed, colourful illustrations capture children's attention and support independent and shared reading
- Indoor & Outdoor Companion: Perfect for reading at home or for outdoor exploration and interactive learning to accompany walks, outings, and outdoor activities

From insects, spiders, and butterflies to tiny animals, Bugs and Little Creatures helps young readers recognise and appreciate the beauty and diversity of the tiny creatures they most commonly encounter in everyday life. Detailed illustrations and concise educational text created by expert naturalists encourage an appreciation for nature and animals and make each page an opportunity to look closer at often overlooked critters in parks, woods, mountains, gardens, and natural landscapes. The perfect companion for walks, trips, and outdoor exploration, this 80-page catalogue encourages curious young animal lovers to discover the science behind the insects, arachnids, and molluscs in their own backyard!

Fosters Environmental Awareness: Includes 80 educational pages of bugs and little creatures young readers recognise from parks, forests, mountains, gardens, and natural landscapes

Encourages STEM Learning: Children ages 6+ learn scientific facts through clear and accessible explanations accompanied by eye-catching visuals

Expertly Created Guide: This richly illustrated visual encyclopaedia is designed for children by expert creators Cocai Design and Danio Miserocchi

Discovery-driven Engagement: Richly detailed illustrations transform scientific observation into an immersive and accessible experience for young readers to explore independently or with friends and family

Introducing the Naturepedia Series: *Bugs and Little Creatures launches the Naturepedia series alongside Flowers and Blooms

Age: 6+
