- For anyone looking to escape and be indulged; enter into the world of the immaculate perfection that exists in these beautifully designed and photographed interiors of China's new private members' clubs

Neo-Chinese Style Clubs offers a glimpse into a secret world; these visually stunning interiors indulge the senses, they whisper elegance, they are flawless, exotic, intimate spaces that set the scene for private meetings and discreet communication, imagination, assignation and human exchange. Reflective of a developing economy, such clubs have become the place where the privileged few can find escape, and the opportunity to relax within rooms and walkways that feel organic, where light and dark create an uncomplicated, yet intriguing environment. Turning the pages of this book you are drawn in, allowed to wander unhindered through the luxury, absorbing the tranquillity of these internal spaces, exploring clubs that exist usually behind closed doors.
