- Funny as well as profound collection of quotes, collected for a reader to make up his own mind

A portrait of the most powerful men in the world through his own words.
To 'overtrump' oneself or others does not necessarily have negative connotations. It also means to get the maximum out of oneself, to constantly better ones standing, and to learn from what has come before.

With this collection of quotations, Sven Lindhorst-Emme shows a broad sampling of Donald Trump's verbalisations, and thus, of how he thinks, and ultimately leave it to the reader to create their own picture. The quotations that make up this publication are often contradictory: they impress, shock, surprise, amaze, amuse, provoke anger, sadden, or leave one incredulous and confused. From interviews to television appearances to speeches and a number of social media channels – Donald Trump is everywhere.
