- This is the latest edition of a long-selling success about Ancient Egypt and archaeology – offering fresh insights like never before!
- Compiled by the world's most famous Egyptologist: Zahi Hawass (from The History Channel and Netflix)
- Maps, floor plans, reconstructions, and compelling text bring an ancient civilisation back to life!

You might think of pyramids as old, but this book is about news! After his successful Netflix documentary Unknown: The Lost Pyramid, Zahi Hawass (the most famous Egyptologist in the world), updates us on the newest discoveries relating to the pyramids! Each chapter includes maps, floor plans, reconstructions, and specially commissioned photographs, accompanied by insights from a major archaeologist and researcher capable of an account so rich it makes history come alive!

This book throws new light on the world that existed around the pyramids, on the lives of the workers who built them, and on the court dignitaries who were granted the privilege of burial place near that of their king. Dive in!

Zahi Hawass is the most famous Egyptologist in the world. His hit TV programmes included: Chasing Mummies by the History Channel, and Unknown: The Lost Pyramid by Netflix. Further to that, he has published over 60 books and served as the Egyptian Minister of State on Antiquities Affairs. Hawass holds a PhD. and over 10 honorary doctorate degrees.
