- A compilation of stunning images illustrating the cultural diversity and landscapes of Rajasthan
- Goes beyond the usual, more traditional, images of Rajasthan published in numerous books
- From one of India's greatest photographers - this is his life's work on the subject
- Features numerous aerial images taken from hot air balloon rides

With unique photographs taken from a hot air balloon, this is a medley of aerial view images showcasing the cultural diversity of Rajasthan; social norms, decorations, prayers and rituals, and the beautiful landscapes of Rajasthan. Each picture tells a story which captures an emotion which goes unnoticed in the real world. This book is a series of tales woven around Rajasthan and photographed by an award winning running photographer; offering much more than just deserts and architecture.
