- Presents buildings by the architectural couple Vincent Rapin and Maria Saiz

The architectural couple Vincent Rapin and Maria Saiz in Vevey transpose their experiences from the international architectural scene onto the tone of regional settlements. With their meticulously and expertly designed measures, they manage to appropriately ennoble apparently everyday aspects of a building. In the recently completed school in Marsens, the solitary building perfectly complements the scattered rural settlement and demonstrates what architecture can achieve when it rounds off the village structure in a fitting way to create a refined, harmonious unity.

Text in German with an English and French insert.
