- In this playfully designed book the paintings and their distinctive features are conveyed in an accessible manner

The Mauritshuis has ten paintings by Rembrandt. The most famous is undoubtedly The Anatomy Lesson of Dr Nicolaes Tulp, but just as popular are Simeon's Song of Praise, Portrait of an Old Man and Self-Portrait, one of the last which the Master painted. In this playfully designed book the paintings and their distinctive features are conveyed in an accessible manner. A large number of detailed images capture Rembrandt's extraordinary painting technique from close by: the quick brushstrokes, the crisscrossing in wet paint and the carefully placed dabs and jabs. The recent restoration of three Rembrandts at the Mauritshuis also receives special attention.
