- How did the boy from a small Belgian village become world champion?
- Behind the scenes of Remco's team
- A gripping story from Filip Osselaer

"In short, this book is an ode to racing, offers a glimpse behind the scenes of a champion, and is, above all, an inspiration for every cyclist who dares to dream." — NL Magazine

A heart of gold and golden legs. Remco Evenepoel goes full gas. A unique record accomplished in just a few years. Multiple world champion and winner of classics and tours, including the Vuelta. In an epic 2024, he finished third in his first Tour, became double Olympic champion, and world time trial champion. In this book, Filip Osselaer talks to Remco, the love of his life Oumi, parents, friends, coaches and specialists about what drives him. It's a touching, in-depth story, filled with tension, sadness, joy, drama, happiness, and success.

Filip Osselaer, a seasoned sports writer, commentator and documentary producer, is also a storyteller. His books on Lucien Van Impe, Freddy Maertens, Eddy Planckaert, and Flandria were all bestsellers.
