- Features the work of the acclaimed photographer spanning his entire career
- Thematically arranged by the main characteristics of his work, his importance for 20th century photography, and the notion of the poetry of realism
- 164 photos are also themed: daily beauty, Palm Springs, artists' studios
- Published to accompany an exhibition in Musée Ixelles in Brussels (October 19, 2017 - February 4, 2018)

Featuring the most well-known photos from Robert Doisneau since the beginning of his career, (re)discover his talent through an original and unknown full colour photoreport. This retrospective of the works of Doisneau also gives an insight into the lives of famous artists such as Picasso and Niki de Saint Phalle. The book is themed by three subjects: the main characteristics of his work and his importance for 20th-century photography, the notion of the poetry of realism, and 164 photos which are also themed: daily beauty, Palm Springs, artists' studios.

Published to accompany an exhibition in Musée Ixelles (Brussels) from 19 October 2017 until 4 February 2018.
