- The third publication to come out of the renowned firm, Ronald Lu & Partners celebrates the breadth and creativity of their work in honour of their 35th anniversary

The third publication to come out of the renowned firm, Ronald Lu & Partners celebrates the breadth and creativity of their work in honour of their 35th anniversary. Rather than a retrospective since day one, the book illustrates both their recent works and the people that make RLP what it is today. The book shares their projects, the stories of the people that work there and the changes they have experienced over the past ten years. With raw and un-edited interviews from members of the firm, the book explores a fresh take on what it is like to be a practicing architect in today's world.

Ronald Lu & Partners (RLP) is an award-winning architectural and interior design firm founded in 1976. Founded in Hong Kong, it is dedicated to the delivery of world-class projects across the globe and has become a specialist in delivering super-high density and mixed-use developments in response to Asia's fast growing economies. As a design-led firm, it creates robust, practical and sensitive built solutions in response to client needs. Our ethos is focused upon providing the best responses to building design and urban design challenges from feasibility to delivery. We provide clients, users, local authorities and the public with better environments that create greater economic and social value.
