In Signs of New York, architect and photographer Emma Verhagen invites you on a visual journey through the streets of the Big Apple. With a keen eye for detail, she captures the most fascinating signs, typefaces, and graphic gems found in the public realm. From iconic restaurant logos and vintage advertising murals to the distinctive signage of the subway: every photograph is paired with the exact location where it was captured. This collection is presented in a beautifully crafted, tactile hardcover. Featuring elegant foil stamping and printed on premium uncoated paper, it serves as the perfect souvenir for any New York visitor, as well as a must-have for enthusiasts of typography, graphic design, and urban nostalgia.

Born and raised in Belgium, Emma Verhagen is an architect who has lived in Brooklyn since the beginning of 2026. Besides architecture, photography and graphic design are two of her other passions. Emma previously illustrated the book 100 Belgian Icons.
