

Somerville 140: 1879-2019

A Celebration of Somerville College, Oxford in 140 Objects

Lizzy Emerson

ISBN	9781785512254
Publisher	Scala Arts & Heritage Publishers
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World
Size	248 mm x 200 mm
Pages	208 Pages
Price	£35.00

- A beautifully illustrated catalogue tracing the eclectic history of Somerville College, through sculpture and teapots and books and bicycle racks
- A personal work, telling the stories of some of the extraordinary individuals who have been a part of Somerville
- A celebration of the 140th anniversary of the College's foundation

Somerville 140 is a celebration of the college's foundation 140 years ago. It tells the stories of some of the extraordinary individuals who have been part of Somerville (including two prime ministers, a Nobel Prize-winning scientist and over seventy published authors). A catalogue of the rare, the everyday and the just plain curious, this beautifully illustrated work includes everything from sculpture to teapots and books to bicycle racks. Contents: Foreword A Rare and Valuable Thing A Brief History of Somerville 1780-1872: In Memory of the Late Mary Somerville 1879-1906: The Life of an English Family 1907-1945: Our Entry Within the Charmed Circle 1945-1989: Always Have Your Plans on the Drawing Board 1989-2019: A Place of Radical Change Afterword Acknowledgements Index

Lizzy Emerson is a freelance writer and editor based in Oxfordshire.

