Dennis T'Jampens is one of Belgium's most talented interior designers. This beautifully crafted coffee table book highlights key moments from his 22-year career.

Throughout the years, his signature style has become evident in his work. While the look and feel of his projects vary greatly, certain elements remain easily recognisable. These are the features clients seek out in Dennis's designs, and what makes him stand out. Whether modern, classic, or contemporary, he loves designing it all and always strives to incorporate his unique signature into each project.
