Source Books in Architecture No. 16: Tatiana Bilbao ESTUDIO focuses on the work of a Tatiana Bilbao ESTUDIO and is meant to expose the foundations and implications of the work in question. The practice is documented through conversations, studies, models, renderings, working drawings, and photographs at a level of detail that allows for a nuanced understanding of the disciplinary agenda from conception to completion. This content is accompanied by contributions from critics and other designers that further explore the significance of the work.

Tatiana Bilbao founded her eponymous studio in 2004 with the objective of integrating social values, collaboration, and sensitivity into architecture. The studio's work often intersects with research, enabling the design of solutions for diverse circumstances, including reconstruction and crisis scenarios.
