

Street Paris

Simon's Maps for Discovering Another Side of Paris

Simon Pradinas

ISBN	9782812317828
Publisher	EPA
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding France
Size	258 mm x 196 mm
Pages	160 Pages
Illustrations	60 color
Price	£22.95

- A remarkable guide to Paris, charting the city's streets and sights from a new perspective
- Colourful maps and stories call out the often overlooked details of some of Paris's most beloved neighbourhoods, buildings and monuments

Illustrated with beautiful and colourful maps, this unique and unusual guide to Paris takes us on a journey to rediscover the most emblematic Parisian quarters and monuments from a new perspective (Notre-Dame, the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre Palace, the Sacré-Coeur...).

Through pictures, stories and singular anecdotes, the eye is drawn to building façades and streets – the details of which can be easily overlooked – as well as the capital's fundamental characteristics. The perfect travel companion both for experts, and for those discovering Paris for the first time.

Simon Pradinas is a Parisian artist. His paintings are exhibited at the Museum of Modern Art in Paris and in Parisian galleries, and often in exhibitions related to street art. For ten years, he worked with the National Theater Center of the Limousin region in France. He loves to travel in the US and in China, and he writes for theatre, cinema and TV.