- A beautifully curated survey of contemporary private aviation, exploring the intersection of interior design, craftsmanship, engineering, technology and luxury travel

From thousands of feet above the clouds, a new generation of private jets is reshaping the culture of contemporary air travel. Whether vast flying palaces or ultra-high-performance business jets, these extraordinary aircraft are extending the frontiers of design, luxury and engineering.

Superjet takes you on a rare, immersive journey inside the most exceptional private jets in the skies today. Through hotel-like interiors and sculptural exteriors, Superjet reveals the extraordinary skill and artisanship elevating every element of these airborne residences: the cabins and lounges, bedrooms and bathrooms, dining spaces and private suites.

The story unfolds through stunning photography and in-depth interviews with the world's leading private jet design studios such as PINTO, Winch Design and Pierrejean Vision; aircraft manufacturers including Gulfstream, Bombardier and Dassault Aviation; and the teams behind some of the world's most ambitious Boeing and Airbus flying residences.

A beautifully produced edition with over 300 large-format images, Superjet is the definitive survey of the aesthetics and ambitions driving the new era of private aviation.
