- The sixth edition of the international prize for architecture was won by Spanish architect Elisa Valero. Her work and that of all the participants is shown in this book

Now in its sixth edition, the prestigious Swiss Architectural Award, aimed at young architects reported by internationally renowned consultants, was awarded this year to the Spanish architect Elisa Valero. The catalogue of the award, which accompanied an exhibition at the Theater of Architecture in Mendrisio (16 November-23 December 2018), collects the works of all the architects who participated in the competition, focusing in particular on those of the winner.

Text in English and Italian.
