

The 100 Photographs That Changed the World

Edited by Roberto Mottadelli

Edited by Margherita Giacosa

Edited by Gianni Morelli

ISBN	9788854410800
Publisher	White Star
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding USA & Canada; India non-exclusive; Italy non-exclusive
Size	285 mm x 242 mm
Pages	224 Pages
Price	£25.00

- This book features a collection of the 100 most contemporary historic photos that have revealed to the world epoch-making moments and points of no return
- Images whose expressive power has stirred people's conscience and given rise to significant changes in politics and customs

It is no longer words that narrate great historic events but photographs which in an instant can capture the drama of an event and impress its power and significance on us forever. This book features a collection of the 100 most contemporary historic photos that have revealed to the world epoch-making moments and points of no return, images whose expressive power has stirred people's conscience and given rise to significant changes in politics and customs.