- Along with detailed illustrations of these cool and surprising creatures, young naturalists get lots of fascinating information from a team of experts
- Suitable for ages: 5 plus

Following the adventures of a fearless explorer through his research, children will be brought face to face with some of the most bizarre and fascinating reptiles in the world. Reptiles are extraordinary animals, with prehistoric ancestors and incredible characteristics. You may be familiar with reptiles that have deadly poison or powerful coils, but did you know that there are some that can walk on water or fly through the air? Discover the eastern long-necked turtle, the horned viper, the flying dragon lizard, the gila monster, and many more. This book will introduce you to them all – tiny and giant, colourful and camouflaged, deadly and harmless. Get ready to learn some incredible fun facts about each and every one! Ages: 5 plus
