- A global reference book for a world of magical creatures, witches and warlocks
- The powers and accomplishments of each magical luminary - from Merlin the Great and Morgana La Fey, to Taoist Jeon Woo-chi and Baba Yaga
- Kids love to dive into a subject matter and learn all the names and facts. A book they will read and reference over and over

Slavic traditions. The Legends of King Arthur. Korean folklore. Greek mythology. A global reference book for a world of magical creatures, witches and warlocks. A book that puts emphasis on inclusion and the fantastical.

Each magical being is given its own space and spread, with a dedicated description, list of facts, highlights, and short stories. This book can open children up to different cultures; spark their interest in a particular world of mythology; be the source of imaginative play and creative expression; as well as the spark for engaging conversation. Age: 7+

Tea Orsi is as a screenwriter for animated TV series, and as an author of comic stories, books and magazines for children.Anna Láng attended the Hungarian University of Fine Arts.
