- Detailed and lifelike, full of rich imagination, and with bold colours
- Describing a unique spiritual world exclusive to the Chinese people

The culture of Chinese monsters and deities has a long history. Inspired from Shan Hai Jing and other ancient books that contain relevant content, this book is a beautiful collection of illustrations that integrates deities, demons and ghosts. It includes over a hundred exquisite works, presenting various fantastical images and stories, and creating a unique spiritual world exclusive to the Chinese people. The author has a rich imagination, uses bold colours, and the works are detailed and lifelike, with wonderful stories. This book is suitable for both painting enthusiasts and illustrators and those who like Chinese mythology.
