- Award-winning author of The Blind Earthworm in the Labyrinth and Memories of the Memories of the Black Rose Cat
- Moving and profound and stylistically brilliant, the author weaves her magical web

From the award-winning novelist Veeraporn Nitiprapha comes this emotional and profound novel written in her signature style, lyrical and magical. A magical coming-of-age story, this, Veeraporn's third novel (following The Blind Earthworm in the Labyrinth and Memories of the Memories of the Black Rose Cat, both winners of The Southeast Asian Writers Award), tells of an emotional journey of growing up in the shadow of loss.

Veeraporn Nitiprapha was born, raised and still resides in Bangkok. She is the devoted mother to a now young man and to four cats, she is a cook and gardener and as well as being a full time writer she also runs a writers workshop. She has won the SEA Writers Award twice, for The Blind Earthworm in the Labyrinth in 2016 when she was the first female to win the prestigious award.
