- A beautifully illustrated tale of the power of light, which brings colour and life not only into our visual world but also into the emotional realm of our hearts and minds

The Light's Way is artist Judy Pelikan's wonderful companion to The Heart's Journey. In twelve original illustrations, Pelikan reveals the life-giving force of light by relating sunlight to color: without sunlight, our natural world is gray, consisting only of patterns, shapes, shadows, and at times, shadows. At the same time, The Light's Way shows how the nurturing inner light of the spirit has the power to make our lives colourful and blessed with happiness. The Light's Way is an inspirational lesson that urges us, or someone we care about, to choose light and bring colour, physically or emotionally, into the world.

Judy Pelikan is the illustrator of the New York Times best seller Grandmother Remembers and many other gift books. She lives in the north country of New Hampshire.
