In the latest volume of The Car Book Series, teNeues presents The Maserati Book, an exquisite illustrated book that impressively showcases the fascinating history and incomparable elegance of the Italian car brand founded in 1914. Breathtaking photographs show legendary models such as the exclusive Sebring of the 1960s and the Ghibli designed by Giorgetto Giugiaro – a masterpiece that even inspired Henri Ford to make the famous request to his designers: “Build a more beautiful car.” The book not only sheds light on Maserati’s evolution from a traditional family business to its current role as a major player in the luxury car industry, but also offers exclusive insights, captivating stories and interviews with experts and insiders. An essential work for connoisseurs and enthusiasts who appreciate the perfect symbiosis of high-end automotive design, lifestyle and technical excellence.
