Have you ever watched Douglas Gordon cook? Do you know Harun Farocki's favourite dal? Would you like to nibble straight from the pot with Keren Cytter or recreate Agnieszka Polska's pirogi with trumpets of death? Cookbooks are a dime a dozen. And there's even a certain tradition of artists' cookbooks. But there is only the one Videoart at Midnight Artists' Cookbook 80 of the most renown video artists of our time reveal their favourite recipes. Some simple, others elaborate, yet all to be recreated. And the best thing about this book is that each and every single recipe tells its own personal story.
