Travelling the world! Open your little suitcase to discover the world, the people and the animals that inhabit it, and many other curiosities. Colour illustrations, short and simple texts, ideal for making toddlers want to take a first look at the world. A puzzle with large format pieces that the child can easily handle. And when it's finished, the funniest thing will be to seek and find all the various topics discussed in the book. Have a good trip! Ages: 4 plus

Born in 1993, Carolina Grosa trained in visual arts and illustration at the IED in Turin, the city where she then specialised in animated film at the Experimental Cinema Center. She works currently as an illustrator for publishing, adult, youth and textbooks. She collaborates also with companies on graphic and advertising projects, and storyboards.
