Things That Cannot Be Put Into Words is an artist's book written by Marie-Sophie Beinke and published by M-S B Verlag and HOPPER&FUCHS (originally published in German in 2021 by M-S B Verlag) and five translations of the same book as paperback editions. This publishing project consists of a mainly blank book, open to every possible idea and image. Things, that cannot be put into words: What has disappeared, the snatched away, the absent, the nothingness, the void are made present. Space for the thinkable, where words fail. An artist's book that openly invites readers to critical thinking, dialogue and debate.

Marie-Sophie Beinke (°1990) is a multidisciplinary artist based in Antwerp, Belgium. She graduated in MA Fine Arts (Painting) at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts, Antwerp and MA Fine Arts (Fashion Design), also at The Royal Academy of Fine Arts, Antwerp.
