- Introduces the work of the figurative painter Tim Sandow

In his figurative painting, Tim Sandow (*1988) brings together the imagined cliché of a type of person with a superabundance of details. Situations that seem to come from day-to-day life appear perplexing at second glance. The paintings give the impression that they are inviting us into their world and ultimately cause us to recoil again and again from the vacant stares of the people who populate the pictures.

Text in English and German.

Tim Sandow obtained his Bachelor of Arts at the University of Wuppertal, before studying art at the Kunstakademie Düsseldorf and at the Akademie der bildenden Künste in Vienna. His works have hitherto been presented throughout Germany and Austria, including at the Museum Kunstpalast in Düsseldorf, at the Wien Museum MUSA in Vienna, at the Kunstverein Neckar-Odenwald, and at the Droste Galerie in Düsseldorf.
