- New series concept: the 30 most beautiful wineries in a region, beautifully photographed and profiled—complete with food pairing recipes and insider tips from the winemakers
- Knowledge that sticks: each chapter opens with expert insights into grape varieties, terroir, and enjoyment
- The perfect mix: iconic estates (Sassicaia, Biondi-Santi, Antinori) alongside small, family-run wineries with agriturismo

Cypress trees, rolling hills, and a glass of Sangiovese in the evening light: Tuscany is Europe's most romantic wine region. Tuscany: A Romantic Wine Journey guides you to the 30 most beautiful wineries—ranging from Brunello castles and coastal Super Tuscan estates to small, family-run vineyards with agriturismo.

Each chapter begins with expert insights into grape varieties, soils, wine styles, and the perfect serving temperature. Afterward, the winemakers open their doors to share their personal portraits, wine overviews, one or two matching recipes, and their insider tips for dining, walking, and savouring the local lifestyle.

To capture the uniqueness of each wine region, Callwey relies on the expertise of the industry's finest minds. The chapter introductions are crafted by handpicked specialists: top-tier sommeliers, wine journalists, and Masters of Wine provide deep insights into their respective fields. Complemented by the exclusive perspectives of oenologists and representatives of major consortia, this creates a vibrant, expertly unparalleled portrait of the Italian wine world.
