

Tutankhamun

Genius

Elizabeth Cook

Illustrated by Angie Alape Perez

ISBN	9788854418448
Publisher	White Star
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding USA & Canada; India non-exclusive; Italy non-exclusive
Size	235 mm x 195 mm
Pages	48 Pages
Name of series	Genius
Price	£6.99

- Part of the Genius book series
- Includes biographical events and quizzes to further understand and test their knowledge
- Suitable for ages: 9 plus

Meet Tutankhamun and discover the story of his life and work in this engagingly illustrated biography – narrated by Tut himself. A series of illustrated books specifically designed for children in elementary education, narrating the stories of great historical figures who have left their mark on humanity. In these, children will be fascinated by the Tutankhamun story in the year of the 100th Anniversary of the discovery of his tomb. Tutankhamun's style of living, the challenges he had to go through his reign and why his tomb had been hidden for so many centuries, these are some of the arguments described to help uncover the story of the most famous boy king, and a world-changing discovery. At the end of each volume, the reader will find a timeline listing the main biographical events and some simple quizzes to further understand and test their knowledge. Ages: 9 plus.

Angie Alape Perez was born and raised in Bogota, Colombia, where she has been working as a freelance illustrator. She has illustrated picture books, textbooks for schools, social campaigns, character design for 3D animation, and web magazines.