Founded in 2004, the office of Triesen-based architects Uli Mayer and Urs Hüssy gained recognition beyond Liechtenstein's borders with their multi-award-winning three-family house in Gapont (2015). This was followed by various renovations, conversions and new buildings that densify and enrich the existing structures without negatively impacting them. The spectrum of their architectural language ranges from the renovation and extension of the listed Brendlehaus in Schellenberg (2006) to the school extension with a double gym and kindergarten in Mauren (2023).

Text in English and German.
