- A fascinating exhibition, from June to November 2019, spread through four sites in the city of Vallauris, France, will display the best of contemporary ceramic creation

Showcasing the greatest talents to emerge from the world of ceramics over the last 25 years, 4 sites in the city of Vallauris, France, will be opening up their spaces to artists who will redefine the very concept of the Biennale. The Musée Magnelli de la Céramique, Eden, and the Maison des Quartiers, as well as Espace Grandjean, will in turn exhibit the latest trends in the field. Their fascinating exhibitions enhance this artistic vein, which is sparking renewed interest. Creative and innovative, the present edition of the Biennale highlights the emergence of new ways of creating with an orientation towards current technologies. Exemplary porcelains are presented here for the first time, next to the best of contemporary international ceramic creation. Text in English and French.
