Night

...and games in after dark

The Christmas season is a time of joy and celebration, and it's also a time when many people enjoy playing games in the dark. Whether it's a board game, a card game, or a video game, playing in the dark can add a new level of excitement and challenge to your game. Here are some tips for playing games in the dark:

- Use a flashlight or night vision goggles. If you're playing a board game or a card game, you'll need a way to see the game pieces and cards. A flashlight or night vision goggles can help you see the game in the dark.
- Use a timer. If you're playing a video game, you'll need a way to keep track of time. A timer can help you keep track of how long you've been playing and when it's time to stop.
- Use a sound effect. If you're playing a video game, you'll need a way to hear the sound effects. A sound effect can help you hear the game in the dark.

Playing games in the dark can be a fun and challenging experience. By following these tips, you can make the most of your game in the dark.
