- An overview of 25 years of design featuring Martin Margiela, Raf Simons, Dirk Bikkembergs and many more. With contributions by Jesse Brouns, Veerle Windels, Hettie Judah, Virginia Tassinari, Nik Baerten

Despite its limited number of inhabitants and rather small surface, the Belgian province of Limburg has a great number of designers with an international reputation. Based on the 10 principles of good design by Dieter Rams this book discovers the roots of Limburg's top design of the last 25 years. With famous names such as Martin Margiela, Raf Simons, Bram Boo, Dieter Bikkembergs and Pieter Stockmans but also unknown or almost invisible design. Text in English and Dutch.

Pablo Hannon is a multidisciplinary designer at studio Hectica and is driven by creative collaborations of all kinds.
