

Who's Afraid of Howie?

Amélie Galé

Illustrated by Jack Tow

ISBN	9788897737223
Publisher	Officina Libraria
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding Italy and France
Size	280 mm x 190 mm
Pages	40 Pages
Illustrations	40 color
Price	£10.99

- The wolf cub and star of Up All Night with Howie is back. This time he just wants to make friends, but it is not as easy as he hoped!
- A story to teach children that appearances can often be misleading
- Beautiful watercolours and funny characters tell a story that many kids (and parents!) will relate to

Howie, a little wolf cub, wants to play! But his chosen playmates, the animals who live on the farm, don't share his enthusiasm: they find him quite scary – Piglets, rabbits, chicks, all run away when he attempts to befriend them. Howie is puzzled, what is wrong with him? Maybe his big ears? Or perhaps his breath? When the disappointed Howie yawns, involuntarily showing his big teeth, one of the little chicks is so startled that he falls into the stream! Howie jumps to the rescue and, risking life and limb in the increasingly fast-flowing river, he saves the little chick. In doing so, he wins the acceptance and friendship of all the farm animals. Also available: Up All Night with Howie ISBN: 9788889854938

Jack Tow is the pen name of a Milanese art historian, who not only studies art but loves to practice it! His watercolours illustrate two books, 'Up All Night with Howie,' published under the LO-Ed imprint, and 'Versailles in Watercolours' ISBN: 9788889854525, an Officina Libraria title.

Amelie Gale is the pen name of an Italian publisher and art historian. She is the mind behind 'The Well-Read Cat' ISBN: 9788889854563 and 'Alphacats' ISBN: 9788897737179, and the author of the previous book about Howie.