TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +44 (0) 1394 389950
Email: uksales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/uk

World Maps

A Journey Back in Time

Kevin J. Brown

ISBN	9788854421547
Publisher	White Star
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding Australasia, USA, & Canada. Italy and India non-exclusive
Size	260 mm x 230 mm
Pages	240 Pages
Illustrations	240 color
Price	£25.00

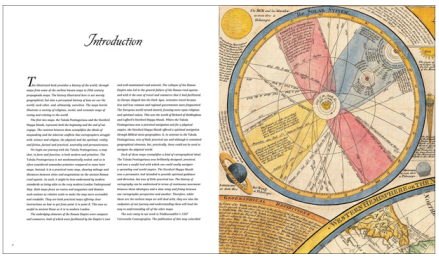

- Comprehensive Historical Perspective: traces the evolution of cartography from ancient times to the modern era
- Visually Stunning Collection: features beautifully illustrated maps that reveal how different cultures perceived the world
- Multidisciplinary Approach: explores religious, social, scientific, and economic influences on map making
- Insight into Human Perception: shows how maps reflect our understanding of geography, politics, and identity over time
- Perfect for Enthusiasts and Scholars: a must-have for history lovers, geography buffs, and collectors of rare maps
- Revealing Political and Cultural Impact: highlights the role of maps in exploration, trade, propaganda, and global power shifts

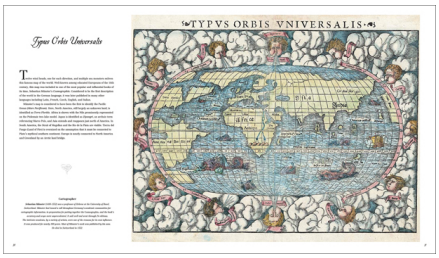

World Maps is a visually stunning exploration of how maps have shaped human understanding throughout history. From the earliest known maps to intricate medieval charts, scientific cartography, and 20th-century propaganda maps, this book reveals not only geographical knowledge but also the evolution of human perception.

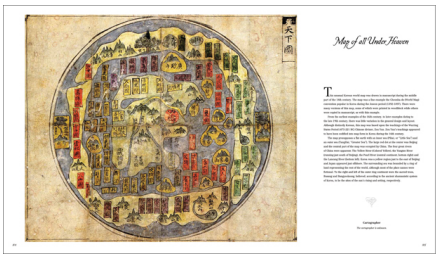

By examining maps from religious, social, scientific, and economic perspectives, readers gain insight into how different cultures and eras have viewed and interpreted the world. More than just a collection of historical artifacts, World Maps tells the story of exploration, power, and knowledge—showcasing the ways maps have influenced politics, trade, and even identity.

Perfect for history lovers, geography enthusiasts, and collectors, this book offers a fascinating journey through time, illustrating how our understanding of the world has been shaped by the maps we create.

Kevin J. Brown is a rare map dealer based in Brooklyn, New York. He is the owner of Geographicus Rare Antique Maps, one of the largest and most active firms specialising in antiquarian cartography in the United States. He has dealt with countless rare maps from all periods covering all regions. Kevin continues to have a passion for rare maps and always looks forward to his next cartographic discovery.

Published 8th Sep 2025