- 2019's best visual journalism compiled in one book
- Selected from thousands of images by photo journalists, picture agencies, newspapers and magazines from all over the world
- The most striking images and compelling stories of the year

Beginning in 1962, the World Press Photo Foundation has had an annual book published, featuring all prize-winning entries. 2020's Yearbook will prove to be another must-have edition, bringing together the very best press photographs from 2019, carefully selected from thousands of powerful, moving and sometimes disturbing images.

The World Press Photo Foundation is a global platform connecting professionals and audiences through trustworthy visual journalism and storytelling, founded in 1955 when a group of Dutch photographers organised a contest ('World Press Photo') to expose their work to an international audience. In the six decades since then, the contest has grown into the world's most prestigious photography competition.
