TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +1 212 645 1111
Email: ussales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/us

111 Places in Hastings and Rye That You Shouldn't Miss

Norman Miller

ISBN	9783740825690
Publisher	Emons Verlag
Binding	Paperback / softback
Territory	USA & Canada
Size	5.31 in x 8.07 in
Pages	240 Pages
Illustrations	111 colour
Name of series	111 Places
Price	$23.95

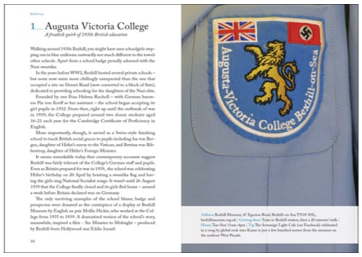

- The ultimate insider's guide to Hastings & Rye for locals and experienced travelers
- Features interesting and unusual places not found in traditional travel guides
- Part of the international 111 Places series with over 650 titles and 3.8 million copies in print worldwide
- Appeals to both the local market (more than 95,000 people call Hastings & Rye home) and the tourist market (more than 1.5 million people visit Hastings & Rye every year!)
- Fully illustrated with 111 full-page color photographs

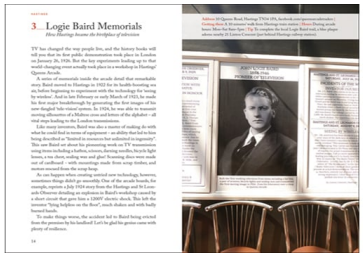

Discover Hastings and Rye, the heart of 1066 Country, where history, charm, and the sea collide. Hastings, an ancient fishing mecca still home to Europe's largest beach-launched fleet, has long carved its own path along the Channel coast – from the castle-capped Old Town to the vibrant, artistic streets of St Leonards. Walk where William the Conqueror landed, and explore the nearby town of Battle, where England's most famous clash reshaped a nation.

Beyond Hastings, this region brims with contrasting delights: the medieval jewel of Rye, one of England's loveliest towns, quirky Dungeness with its shingle expanse, Bexhill's understated charm, and timeless back-country villages.

From sunken forests older than the Pyramids to Roman relics, forgotten castles, wartime memories, eccentric locals, and modern creatives, the stories here span millennia. Rich, evocative, and endlessly surprising, this guide invites you to explore the landscapes, history, and culture that make Hastings and Rye utterly unforgettable. Dive in and experience it all.

Norman Miller is an award-winning journalist and broadcaster for a host of leading outlets including the BBC, The Times and The Guardian. He is also a published and performed poet, playwright and story writer. He has lived in Sussex for two decades after deciding it was far more enjoyable than London.

Published 9th Jun 2026