Alfred's Journey retraces the journey of photographer Alfred Yaghobzadeh, from his very first picture, taken in Tehran in 1978, to the war in Ukraine in 2023. Between the two lies the restless life of a photographer who followed the planet's convulsions across four decades, from the harshest front lines to the most joyful uprisings.

The book gathers 276 images, eight exclusive texts written by Alfred in English and French, and a thirty-page caption notebook printed on 45gsm Bible paper.

First time available in the US—Text in English and French
