London embraces all walks of life, reflected in its eclectic literature. Whether you want to ramble across Hampstead Heath like Keats, stroll between the landmarks of Virginia Woolf's Bloomsbury or delve into the Golden Age of crime fiction in the historic alleyways of Soho, this is your opinionated guide to the capital's storied streets. Wodehouse fan or Wyndham enthusiast, London is littered with literary gems, so get your nose out of your book and hit the pavement.

John Clegg works as a bookseller in central London. He's published three collections of poetry, and is the author of*An Opinionated Guide to Literary London.*
