- This is part of a growing series of opinionated guides which offer no-nonsense insider's advice on what to do and see in cities around the world

Peruse mid-century furniture at Hackney Flea Market, gorge on falafel wraps, strawberries and British cheese in Borough, soak up the vibe at Camden Lock and then buy a bunch of fresh eucalyptus or a five-foot monstera at Columbia Road. London's got hundreds of markets but these are the only ones you need to know about. Grab an empty tote bag and be prepared to hunt for some treasures.

Sonya Barber is a London-based travel writer. She is the author of several popular titles in the Opinionated Guide series, including East London, Escape London, London Bookshops and London Delis.
