Simon Drew's idiosyncratic views of the human and animal kingdoms have already been the exclusive subject of twenty books. His words and pictures have also been imprinted on numerous and varied articles of clothing, greeting cards, mugs, umbrellas and framed prints. This is Simon Drew's twenty first book, thus establishing him in the same league as Jane Austen (or at least the league of her neighbour's gardener). Once again, Simon treats his public to word games, puzzles and all-round nonsense. A selection of Simon's work can be found at: simondrew.co.uk

Simon Drew lives in Dartmouth, England, with his wife, Caroline, and his dog, Rabbit. He works mainly in pen and ink, making fiendishly inventive drawings of everyday objects, birds and animals embellished with devious rhymes and word play. His work is widely acclaimed and exhibited, and is already the subject of numerous books. Drew's designs are also incorporated into a wide variety of stationery and accessories ranging from cards, mugs, t-shirts and aprons. - See more at:
