Anima Mundi is the catalog of the large collection of African art by Jan and Kristina Engels. For several years now they have been presenting their own private collection in their museum JAS (Jan aan de Stroom). It is a place where creativity, art and traditions meet. In the book you will discover beautiful photography of their collected art, accompanied by texts by specialist in African Art, François Neyt.

Text in English, French and Dutch.

François Neyt is an ethnologist, philosopher, archaeologist and art historian. He has previously published three books on African art.
