- A stunning addition to the 36 Chambers series leads the reader deep into a menagerie of fantastic, dark creatures accented by bold strokes and specks of gold

In Animal Collective, Fupete and Jacklamotta create escapist dreams through their alternative reality. The stunning addition to the*36 Chambers* series leads the reader deep into a menagerie of fantastic, dark creatures accented by bold strokes and specks of gold. These creatures feature influence from the Italian streets, lending an authenticity to their portrayal as surreal daydreams from the minds of two outsiders.

Fupete and Jacklamotta combine their organic styles into a world of fantasy ruled by instinct. These global artists, having created designs for brands such as Ralph Lauren and Polo Jeans, in addition to having exhibits across Europe and America, bring their experiences together in this striking collection based on escaping banality.
