TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +1 212 645 1111
Email: ussales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/us

Animal Lover's London

Where to find extraordinary creatures in the capital

Sian Meades-Williams

ISBN	9781917719674
Publisher	Hoxton Mini Press
Binding	Hardback
Territory	USA & Canada
Size	4.29 in x 6.14 in
Pages	192 Pages
Price	$19.95

- Go beyond the tourist hotspots to find extraordinary and unusual creatures in the capital with the help of this lively, pocket-sized guide
- Includes educational information about each animal alongside beautiful, high-quality imagery
- Collectible, giftable book

From peregrine falcons nesting at Battersea Power Station to gray seals swimming in the Thames, London's wildlife is even wilder than you may expect. This pocket guide reveals where and when to spot the capital's most extraordinary creatures and spotlights its best attractions for an animal-themed cultural encounter. Visit pelicans at St James's Park, marvel at beavers carving out habitat in Ealing and discover an elusive giant squid at the Natural History Museum. This book celebrates London's relationship with the natural world, from historic sites to pioneering conservation projects.

Sian Meades-Williams is a travel writer and animal enthusiast. She has written features for National Geographic, JRNY and The Simple Things.

Publish date 16th Jun 2027