- The latest in a series that has consistently presented the best and most interesting architecture and design projects from around the world
- Includes 47 recent projects from 22 architectural firms, with over 900 illustrations

Architecture Highlights 11, the latest in a well-regarded series, brings together 47 recent projects from 22 architectural firms. The essence of each project is thoroughly explored in plans, elevations, cross-sections, building facades, and interior pictures. This book includes projects from notable firms such as ACDF Architecture from Canada, Henning Larsen Architects from Denmark, and KAAN Architecten from the Netherlands. As always, the series brings together an exceptional roster of talent whose work addresses the current themes and concerns of modern architecture.
