- A coloring book that goes beyond the simple pleasure of coloring
- All the works featured in this book come from Brussels, the iconic birthplace of Art Nouveau, reflecting all its diversity and inventiveness
- A creative journey combining discovery, contemplation, and personal expression

Discover the ornamental richness of this fascinating movement through 30 carefully selected illustrations: sinuous lines, floral motifs, delicate ironwork, and finely crafted decorative compositions. Inspired by major artists such as Victor Horta, Paul Cauchie, Gustave Strauven, and others, this book invites you to bring an exceptional heritage back to life. Each drawing is accompanied by explanatory elements to help you recognize the distinctive features of Art Nouveau, understand the artists' intentions, and develop a more discerning eye. An accessible and relaxing way to learn while creating.

Text in English, French and Dutch.

Caroline Berckmans is an art historian specializing in architectural heritage. Trained in Germanic philology and art history, she has worked for nearly 20 years as a project manager at ARCHistory, an organization dedicated to the study, promotion, and preservation of the built heritage.
